

Does Anybody Hear?

Ta’anit Esther commemorates the power of a single woman to change the course of Jewish history. This year, we ask you to follow Esther’s example and courage by making this communal day of fasting and repentance one in which you keep in mind all the agunot, women who cannot get a Jewish divorce. We, the undersigned, pledge our efforts on this day and throughout the coming year to work to alleviate the suffering of the victims of get refusal in our midst. We also urge Rabbis and the entire Jewish community to use all legitimate halakhic means at our disposal to prevent the emergence of new agunot.

The undersigned do not necessarily agree with or endorse all the policies of the other signatories but nevertheless have come together because of the extreme urgency of this issue.

- Learn what the issues are: Visit www.jofa.org ; www.ocweb.org ; www.legalaid.org.il ; www.agunot-campaign.org.uk ; www.getora.com
- Ask your Rabbi to be involved: educate the community about the laws and process of getting; counsel recalcitrant husbands to give a get; provide resources to agunot
- Support the Rabbinical Council of America recommendation: make a Jewish pre-nuptial agreement a requirement for every marriage
- Help agunot make informed decisions by identifying batei din that are respectful of women and above suspicion of bias or conflict of interest
- Encourage men from all branches of Judaism, when divorcing, to give a get
- Petition Rabbis and gabbaim to deny synagogue honors to men who refuse to give a get
- Form local groups to participate in demonstrations and apply social pressure against recalcitrant spouses who refuse to give a get
- Be supportive of agunot in your community: invite them and their children to your Shabbat and Yom Tov table
