

Women in the World of Torah Midrasha Summer Study Retreat

June 23-30 / July 7-14, 2004
Kibbutz Ein Hanatziv, Beit She'an Valley

Enhance your visit to Israel with a weeklong study retreat at the Midrasha. Enjoy the peaceful atmosphere of rural kibbutz life, while delving into the intricacies of Judaic text under the guidance of some of the finest teachers in Israel.

Summer study program includes:

- Engaging Gemara classes followed by directed Chevruta study
- Text-based Torah study, with visits to actual Biblical sites
- Contemporary Jewish Thought
- Women's role in the Bible and in the world of the Sages

Special evening programming will offer a taste of modern Israeli culture and will introduce participants to different personalities that make up the colorful tapestry of Israeli society today. Tours to spa resort in the best location in Israel. Shabbat will be spent on Kibbutz Ein Hanatziv. Host families will invite program participants (and their husbands / families) to enjoy the unique atmosphere of Shabbat on Kibbutz. Shabbat lectures with well-known speakers will be offered, as well as walking tours of the kibbutz itself.

The Midrasha Summer Study Program is open to women who are searching for the opportunity to study Jewish sources on the highest level. Classes will be taught by leading Israeli instructors at the Midrasha. All of the instructors are English-speakers.

Accommodations:

Participants will be housed in the Midrasha guest rooms.

All meals will be provided in the Kibbutz dining hall.

Participants will have access to outdoor swimming pool and tennis courts.

Cost: $700 (includes study program and tours, full room and board, trips)

Registration: Please return the enclosed form together with a deposit of $50 and reserve your place by April 30, 2004. The remainder of tuition fees are due on the first day of classes. The program will open with a minimum of 10 participants.

We look forward to seeing you!
